

Alice Sakahara Memorial Scholarship

The Alice Sakahara Memorial Scholarship is in honor of Alice Sakahara, former Gilroy Unified School District “head” secretary at Gilroy High School for 42 years. Alice was a Gilroy High icon. Ask any staff member and they cited that “Alice ran Gilroy High.” She was devoted to the students, loved the staff and was loyal to the administration. She loved Gilroy High sports and was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2000. This scholarship is meant to inspire and support students who aspire a career in education or vocational education and demonstrated leadership, citizenship, and community service.
